

ENI EXPANDS PRESENCE IN ALGERIA WITH THE ACQUISITION OF BP'S BUSINESS

Posted on 13 September 2022

Categories: Deal & transactions, Oil & Gas, Other

Tags: ADNA, Akshai Fofaria, Alexander Spoor, Bruce McLeod, Claire Scott, cn1, David Trethowan, Eloise Walker, Fayçal Zedek, Foued Bourabia, Frits Burg, Jamie Robson, Jonathan Kirkwood, Pinsent Masons

Integrated energy company, Eni has successfully completed the acquisition of BP's two gas-producing concessions "in Amenas" and "in Salah" jointly operated with Sonatrach and Equinor. This acquisition has an important strategic value and contributes to Europe's gas needs whilst strengthening Eni's presence in Algeria.

Eni was advised by ADNA and Pinsent Masons on this acquisition.

The ADNA team was led by partner Foued Bourabiat (Algeria) and associate Fayçal Zedek (Algeria).

Pinsent Masons advised Eni on all aspects of the transaction including due diligence, transactional negotiations, regulatory support, tax and employment law. The Pinsent Masons multidisciplinary team led by partners Bruce McLeod, Akshai Fofaria, Eloise Walker, Claire Scott and Alexander Spoor included Jonathan Kirkwood, Jamie Robson, Frits Burg and David Trethowan.