LegalcommunityMENA kicks off 2023 with the launch of a new series called "From MENA to the WORLD". The series aims to shed light on the latest law updates and amendments in MENA countries.

With Suzan Taha, each month, LegalcommunityMENA will be interviewing a lawyer to discuss the updates in their domicile country. The goal with this series is to provide a comprehensive and easily accessible resource for those looking to stay informed about legal developments in the region.

The series will be available on LegalcommunityMENA website and social media channels.
