Eldib & Co Attorneys at Law has welcomed Marwan Eissa (pictured) to its partnership, effective 1 January 2023.

Eissa is an expert in Intellectual Property law and has a wealth of experience representing major clients, small businesses, and multinationals. He offers legal support, conducts trademark searches and investigations, registers national and international trademarks, handles refusals and oppositions of registrations, and files appeals and counter-statements. He acts as an advocate and trademark attorney for his clients.

Marwan Eissa most recently served as senior associate IP lawyer and director of brand protection department at Eldib & Co. He joined the firm in 2009 as an associate and was later promoted to senior associate in 2014.
