Abdulla Al Najjar Advocates and Legal Consultants, a Dubai-based law firm, has joined Meysan Partners to serve the latter's clients in the United Arab Emirates in all types of litigation matters.

Abdulla Alnajjar Advocates & Legal Consultants was established in Dubai to provide a wide range of distinguished legal services that suit the needs of individuals and companies in the United Arab Emirates.

The joining of Abdulla Al Najjar and his team marks a significant milestone in Meysan's development strategy.

The firm's founder, Abdulla Yousef Al Najjar (pictured right), is a UAE-licensed attorney with the right of audience before all courts of the United Arab Emirates. He has extensive experience advising on a range of legal areas and fields, particularly advising on complex commercial litigation matters.

"I'm delighted to join Meysan Partners and grow with the firm. Our years of experience practicing law in the UAE market will not only bring an unprecedented value to the firm, but it will certainly play a big role in the firm's regional growth". Said Abdulla Yousef Al Najjar.

"We are also excited to learn from Meysan's team given their solid expertise that has decades of experience practicing law locally and internationally." He added.
