

ASAR WITH SAMA EDUCATIONAL CO IN ITS ACQUISITION OF KUWAIT ENGLISH SCHOOL

Posted on 24 June 2022

Categories: Deal & transactions, Other, Uncategorized

Tags: ASAR, Brenda Ntambirweki, dx1, Ezekiel Tuma, Meysan Partners, Mustafa Sayed

Sama Educational Company, the education management company based out of Kuwait, has completed the acquisition of Kuwait English School (KES).

Established in 1978, the Kuwait English School caters for students aged 3-19 including children with special needs.

The advisors

ASAR – Al Ruwayeh & Partners acts as legal counsel to SAMA Educational company in the acquisition of Kuwait English School. ASAR's team was led by corporate partner Ezekiel Tuma (pictured) assisted by senior associate Brenda Ntambirweki and associate Mustafa Sayed.

Meysan Partners represented KES as legal counsel. The team was led by corporate partner Michel Ghanem (pictured above), with support from senior associate Salwa Abdallah and associate Moayad AlSuwaidan.

Messilah Ventures acted as financial advisors on this successful M&A transaction