Egypt-based law firm, Shalakany has elected Sherry El Shalakany (pictured) to its partnership.

Sherry El Shalakany joined the Firm in November 2007 in the Corporate Department up to date. Her practice includes corporate & commercial, banking, labour and employment, project financing, taxes and capital markets.

El Shalakany worked on numerous m&a transactions involving advanced level of due-diligence report, attending extensive negotiations and drafting the necessary transactional documents.

Khaled El Shalakany, senior and managing partner, said: "We are very delighted to have Sherry join the partnership. Her election reflects the Firm and the market's confidence in her unique ability and shows our commitment to creating the right environment for lawyers to develop and realize their full potential."
